LOCAL 7-YEAR-OLD PARTICIPATES IN LEARN TO GOLF CLINIC DESIGNED FOR CHILDREN WITH PHYSICAL CHALLENGES

Kaitlyn Jeter to Practice Golf at Event for Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children Patients

WHO: Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children (TSRHC) patients, families and staff
TSRHC patient Kaitlyn Jeter, age 7 of Fort Worth
Allied healthcare and golf professionals

WHAT: TSRHC patients will participate in a Learn to Golf clinic taught by allied healthcare and golf professionals specially trained to teach children with physical challenges. Junior golfers will learn about golf safety, etiquette, driving, chipping and putting.
TSRHC's Learn to Golf program is designed for patients with challenging physical conditions. The Learn to Golf program provides the tools and instruction needed for patients to participate in and reap the rehabilitative benefits of golf. The program is supported by funds from TSRHC donors and a multi-year grant provided by the United States Golf Association to aid in the expansion and enhancement of the program. There is no charge for patients to participate. This will be the fifth Learn to Golf at Leonard Golf Links.

Support for the Learn to Golf program is provided by the USGA, PGA and Wadsworth Golf Charities Foundation, as well as many individuals and local businesses.

ABOUT
KAITLYN
JETER: Kaitlyn Jeter, age 7 of Fort Worth, has been a patient at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children (TSRHC) since she was four months old. Kaitlyn was born with amniotic band syndrome (ABS), effecting her foot and hand. ABS is when parts of a baby's limbs are entangled by string like bands in the womb. This will be Kaitlyn's second Learn to Golf clinic. In addition to golf, Kaitlyn enjoys piano, violin, cheerleading, basketball, and soccer.

ABOUT
TSRHC: Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children is one of the nation's leading pediatric centers for the treatment of orthopedic conditions, certain related neurological disorders and learning disorders, such as dyslexia. There is no charge to patient families for treatment at the hospital, and admission is open to Texas children from birth to 18 years of age. For more information, to volunteer or to make a donation, please call (214) 559-5000 or (800) 421-1121 or visit www.tsrhc.org.
