Austin's The Biscuit Brothers Perform at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children

Before Performing at the Texas Crossroads Festival at Dallas Heritage Village, The Brothers Make a Special Stop

WHAT: Austin's The Biscuit Brothers return for Dallas Heritage Village's 2nd annual Texas Crossroads Festival on Saturday, September 22. The Brothers are dedicated to bringing music and learning together into the lives of families everywhere. They will perform for a very special group of children...the patients of Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children (TSRHC).

WHO: Dallas Heritage Village brings back Austin's PBS and Emmy-winning, Buford and Dusty, better known as "The Biscuit Brothers." Known for "Barnyard Jamborees," the Biscuits have been busy on Old Macdonald's Musical Farm preparing monkey dances and growing new instruments to educate Dallas' kids and parents about music.
