- KIDSWING INFORMATION: KidSwing Golf Tournament was founded in 2003 by Ben Sater, former patient at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children (TSRHC), as a way to give back to the hospital for treatment he received at no charge to his family. There is no entry fee to play in the tournament, but children who enter are encouraged to raise $100 for the hospital by asking their family and friends to "sponsor" them. For information about KidSwing, please visit www.KidSwing.org or e-mail KidSwing@tsrh.org.
- HOSPITAL INFORMATION: Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children is one of the nation's leading pediatric centers for the treatment of orthopedic conditions, certain related neurological disorders and learning disorders, such as dyslexia. There is no charge to patient families for treatment at the hospital, and admission is open to Texas children from birth to 18 years of age. For more information, to volunteer or to make a donation, please call (214) 559-5000 or (800) 421-1121 or visit www.tsrhc.org.
